

QUINN LEFFINGWELL

SPRING 2023 SIBBERSON FINALIST - COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Quinn is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Religious Studies. He will attend Oklahoma State University to pursue a Master of Public Health degree. He will be a graduate research assistant in a lab for the HEALTHy Child and Brain Development, a National Institute of Health.

Quinn is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi honor society, was named an Ichabod of Honor and was a “WU’s Who” recipient. He served on the Washburn University Center for Teaching Excellence Advisory Board, the Kansas Board of Regents Academic Affairs committee. While ~~servicing as~~ Student Body president, the Washburn Student Government Association ~~executed an increased~~ in student worker minimum wage, increased enforcement of success week policies, implemented and modernized Homecoming awards, created a “Health and Wellness” Director position and committee. Quinn ~~served was~~ a Resident Assistant for the Honors Living Learning Community, and ~~as~~ an Office Assistant in the Leadership Institute. Quinn was the Washburn Student Government Association Parliamentarian, Psychology Club Social Media Chair, Washburn Residential Council Program Chair, Student Leadership Council Newsletter Team Leader, and completed the Marathon Training Class.

Quinn completed two Washburn Transformational Experiences (~~WTE~~). The ~~First~~ first was an International Experience with the Political Science Department on a European Capitals study abroad experience. His presentation is titled “The Continuing Relevance of International Criminal Courts” in The Hague, ~~Netherlands~~. Quinn is completing a Scholarly WTE, concurrent with his Psychology Directed Research Project.

He served ~~the community~~ as Visiting Volunteer in Patient Care Services at the Stormont Vail Behavioral Health Care Center, as a Peer Mentor for the High School Leadership Academy, as the Scoring Coordinator for the Leadership Challenge event, and volunteered with Washburn’s Chapter of Unite for Reproductive and Gender Equity. He completed an internship at the ~~in the Community Health Outreach and Planning Division of the~~ Shawnee County Health Department.

Quinn received the Lee Leadership Scholarship, Culver Trust Scholarship, Washburn Alumni Association Scholarship, Leadership Institute Peer Mentor Scholarship, Glen Tuchscherer Religious Studies Scholarship, and Urban Family Religious Studies Scholarship