

JENNY TRAN

SPRING 2023 SIBBERSON FINALIST - SCHOOL OF APPLIED STUDIES

Jenny is graduating with a Bachelor of Legal Studies degree with a minor in Political Science. After graduating, Jenny plans to attend Washburn University School of Law. While in law school she plans to be part of the law clinic to familiarize herself with legal procedures and various areas of the law. After graduating from law school, she plans on taking the Bar in Kansas to practice corporate law.

Jenny is a member of Pre-Law Club, Mock Trial, We are F1rst, Washburn Adulthood 101, Washburn Young Democrats, Washburn Residential Council and Washburn Low Brass Society. She was the President and Vice-President of Pre-Law Club, President of We are F1rst, and Secretary and Treasurer of Washburn Young Democrats. During her time in Mock trial, she received a witness award for her role as an expert witness. She was placed on the President's List of Honorees all seven semesters of her undergraduate career.

As a freshman, Jenny worked with the Washburn Residential Council to make blankets for the Topeka Helping Hands Humane Society. In 2019, she volunteered for Ichabod's Night, which helped aspiring high school seniors shadow college students. Last summer she volunteered with the Garden City high school band to help hand out band uniforms.

While at Washburn Jenny received the Finnup Foundation Scholarship, the Mock Trial Scholarship, and the Tyson Foods Scholarship. Through the School of Applied Studies, she has received the Legal Studies/Criminal Justice, the Altrusa, and Bowman Scholarship. Through Washburn's music department she received the Pep-Band Scholarship, Music Showcase Scholarship, and Marching Band Scholarship.
