SR 20-21 #015

TITLE: Accessibility in Carnegie Hall

ORIGINATOR: Daija Coleman

SPONSOR: Trautman/Babcock Administration

STATUS: Campus and Community Affairs Committee - Status

WHEREAS: According to Daija Coleman, often the argument is that Carnegie Hall cannot be changed because it is a historical site; however, according to: Preservation Brief 32: Making Historic Properties Accessible, "Historic Properties are not exempt from the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)," and

WHEREAS: According to Daija Coleman, Dr. Carolyn Carlson has been fighting for the accessibility of Carnegie Hall for the last 17 years, and

WHEREAS: According to Daija Coleman, the "elevator" that is currently located in Carnegie Hall, has broken down twice with Daija Coleman inside throughout her time at Washburn without an accessible way of communicating a way out for those trapped inside, and

WHEREAS: According to Daija Coleman, a current Washburn student with mobility challenges has explained to Daija that they would rather crawl up the three floors than have the class be moved to another location due to the social repercussions of the class.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

SECTION ONE: Washburn Student Government Association recognizes the importance of accessibility and inclusion of people with mobility challenges in buildings and facilities on Washburn University's campus with a current focus on Carnegie Hall.

SECTION TWO: Washburn Student Government Association will also promote the events addressing this issue through our social media.

SECTION THREE: Washburn Student Government Association calls the Washburn Administration to act on this information provided.

SECTION FOUR: Upon passage, this shall be sent to the Washburn Administration including but not limited to Dr. Farley, Dr. Grospitch, Dr. Bluml, and Dr. Mazachek.

SECTION FIVE: This legislation shall become effective upon passage.

TITLE: The Holiday Blues
ORIGINATOR: Senator Em Jordan
SPONSOR: Trautman/Babcock Administration
STATUS: Communications Committee - Status

WHEREAS: Washburn Student Government must support its student body and faculty struggling with holiday blues and raise awareness for healthy coping mechanisms for those struggling with the holiday blues, and

WHEREAS: During the months of November and December, holiday blues increase, often leading to higher rates of depression and anxiety, and

WHEREAS: Students may face discrimination in unsupportive households, further increasing holiday blues, and

WHEREAS: According to a survey, the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) reported that approximately 24% of people with a diagnosed mental illness find that the holidays make their condition “a lot” worse and 40% “somewhat” worse, and

WHEREAS: Forbes magazine reported the leading factors of holiday blues are family issues, high expectations, grief, and financial and emotional stress.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

SECTION ONE: The Washburn Student Government Association recognizes and stands with those who struggle with the holiday blues because of distance, grief, financial stress, emotional stress, and lack of acceptance by utilizing social media and Washburn University faculty, staff, and administration, specifically counseling services to address these issues.

SECTION TWO: This legislation shall become effective upon passage.
