WASHBURN UNIVERSITY ART SCHOLARSHIP 2016-2017

Washburn University Art faculty are actively seeking top quality scholarship applicants for the 2016-2017 academic year. Each student interested in applying for scholarship consideration must comply with the following procedures:

1. A letter of introduction and request for scholarship consideration. Include your name, address, phone number and Washburn ID #.

2. Transfer students should include a letter of recommendation from someone who knows you and your artwork such as an art instructor, current WU art majors may ask a faculty member to place their name on the recommendation list in the Department office in lieu of a letter.

3. A copy of your transcript and a list of art and academic awards, including scholarships. Unofficial copies of transcripts are sufficient.

4. Portfolio of exactly TEN (10) artworks in a variety of media. We require a CD of digital images. All images should be labeled with name, media, size and date. Include in your images works produced in Washburn art classes, if current student, and at least one observational drawing. Portfolios are judged on the following criteria: technical proficiency, visual design, originality and expression.

   OR

   Art History applicants should submit a sample of writing done for an Art History or other humanities class. In addition, they must write a paragraph explaining why they are interested in art history. This statement may be part of the letter of introduction.

5. Include a printed image list with title, media, size and date for each artwork.

7. New students must complete the Washburn Application for Admission and Scholarship form.

8. You must be declared as an Art major, BA or BFA, and enrolled as a full-time student for 2014-15 to be considered for a scholarship.

9. Enclose all materials in an envelope labeled with your name and Washburn ID #.

All materials must be delivered to the Art Department, AB 101, by 12:00 (noon), Feb. 15, 2016.
