Camp Rules:

1. WEAR NAME TAG AT ALL TIMES!!! (This is the one issued to you at the beginning of camp)
2. When you go some place, always go in groups of at least two. Do NOT travel alone.
3. Don't talk to strangers. EX: Counselors, teachers, etc. are wearing a (Jazz Camp Name Tag). If someone strange approaches you, tell one of the camp staff right away.
4. Be careful crossing the street. Always cross at a crosswalk. Look both ways before stepping off the curb. STOP! Look both ways, and then cross. Watch out for your friends.
5. No one, except day campers, can go home in the evenings, or ride in cars during the week! Day campers, once you arrive, you cannot ride or drive in a car until you leave in the evening.
6. Stay away from all construction areas on campus.
7. On the side of the building there are big outdoor fountains. It is not a swimming pool or a wading pool. Please stay out of the fountains and do not throw anything in them!

Where you can go and where you cannot go:

1. Can go: Garvey Center, Living Learning Center, Student Union, Practice Fields, Quad area
2. Cannot go: cross any street, music office or any other office in the building except for the WUSMC Office, Mulvane?
3. Dorms: only dorm campers are allowed in the dorm rooms; day campers may mingle in the lobby of the dorm, but cannot go past the doors leading to rooms

LESSONS

Policies/Procedures:

For those students scheduled for a private lesson, the day/time will be written on your lanyard/Name Tag. Students are responsible for remembering their lesson time and must be allowed time to attend their lesson (please check your Name Tag for your scheduled lesson). If you don't know where your lesson is being held, ask a counselor. Arrive to your lesson five minutes early, and knock on the door when it is your time. The door should have a schedule listing your appointed lesson time with your name. If the door does not list your appointed lesson time, you are in the wrong place, so ask someone with a yellow bracelet where you need to go. All lessons are in the Garvey Center.

Campers will have the opportunity to sign up for lessons after the jazz camp meeting on Monday, June 20th. If a lesson is desired, Parents/Guardians should be prepared to bring cash or check to be paid/made –out directly to the applied instructor.

FEEs: $20= half hour, $40 = hour lesson.

NON-CAMPERS (COMMUTERS)

Drop off & Pick up area will be in front of White Concert Hall. Once you arrive in the morning, please check in and report to your first assigned class. When you leave for the evening (after 8pm) please notify a Camp Counselor that your ride is here and you are leaving. Be on time! You have got to be on time for everything. Wear a watch or use your cell phone, know where you're going. Get there ahead of time. We take attendance at everything and will find you if you do not show up. You can always ask a counselor/staff if you have questions – Jazz Camp schedules will be posted for your information. Failure to show for classes or regular tardiness you will be sent home. NO EXCEPTIONS!

JAZZ CAMP LANYARDS/NAME TAGS

All campers, faculty and staff will be given a JAZZ CAMP LANYARD/(Name Tag). This will identify you as a CAMP participant. Additionally, it is your meal card for the dining hall. These are to be worn during the entire day of CAMP. It is required that lanyards must be worn all of the time.

HEALTH MATTERS

All health forms will be on file in the Camp Office (Garvey 312) and the head residence counselor (McKenzie Buttron)/Camp Director (Dr. Craig Treinen) will have access to this information. If a student falls ill at anytime during the camp, parents/guardians will be called, student health at Washburn University may be utilized. In case of an emergency, parents/guardians/campus police/emergency authorities will be notified. This is for the safety of you child.

ATTENDANCE TAKING AND REPORTING PROCEDURE:

Residence Counselors will take attendance at the beginning of the day at the first class session. All students must be on time – so that no one is mistakenly missing. If a student is missing: parent/guardian and campus police will be contacted.

Once an absence is phoned in to the camp office, the camp counselors will take over. Dorms will be checked, phone calls made, Campus Police will be contacted. If/When the student shows up to the rehearsal, counselors will be IMMEDIATELY informing the camp office so we can call off the search party. Students who are late/missing will have a conference with Camp Director to clarify any confusion and to stress importance of attendance.

NON - CAMPER COMMUTER – IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Daytime Residence Counselors are charged with the responsibility of the commuters/non - campers.

- ✓ ALL COMMUTER/NON-CAMPERS will be DROPPED OFF in front of White Concert Hall (day-time counselors will be there to guide students where they need to go).
- ✓ ALL COMMUTER CAMPERS will be PICKED UP in front of White Concert Hall (day-time counselors will be there to guide students where they need to go.)
- ✓ *PARENTS/GUARDIANS - if your child is being pickup from the camp by someone other than their parents/guardian, the parents/guardian of that child must register that person's name prior to the jazz camp with the Camp Director (Dr. Craig Treinen or Mrs. Ann Treinen) a signed release form will be made available during registration. Parent and child will have photo taken for identification. NO STUDENT will be released from the camp with unauthorized parent/guardian. Parents/Guardians must be present in the lobby to check out their child before they are released. Parents/guardian/campus police will be notified of unauthorized adult pickups. Parents/Guardians: Please be ready to pick-up your child at 8pm!

Commuter/Non - Campers must notify Residence Counselors when their parents/guardian has arrived so they can be checked out to leave the camp.
