
No. 155 - March 2014
The Potent Role of Personality in Structured Behavioral Interviews: An Experimental Field Study
Maria R. Hamdani and Sorin Valcea

No. 156 - March 2014
Dividend Policy Revisited
H. Kent Baker and Robert A. Weigand

No. 157 - May 2014
Asymmetric Pass-through of Anti-dumping Duties
Dmitri Nizovtsev and Alexandre Skiba

No. 158 - August 2014
A Capital Structure Model (CSM) with Tax Rate Changes
Robert M. Hull

No. 159 – October 2014
Examining the Journal Rating Project: Players, Process, and Purpose
Louella Moore

No. 160 – October 2014
De Gustibus (Non) Est Disputandum: From First Impression to Selection in Employment Interview
Liviu Florea, Thomas Dougherty, Sorin Vlcea, and Maria Hamdani

No. 161 – October 2014
Factors Affecting the Accuracy of the Active Medication List: Information for Health Care Managers
Robert Boncella, Sun Wenving, Carol Boncella

No. 162 – October 2014
Does Academic Research Provide Sufficient Evidence Concerning Possible Changes to the Audit Reporting Model?
Theodore J. Mock, Jean Bedard, Paul Coram, Reza Espahbodi and Rick Warne

163 – October 2014
Have Analyst Forecast Properties Improved after Regulations?
Hassan Espahbodi, Pouran Espahbodi and Reza Espahbodi

164 – October 2014
Pass-Through Valuation
Robert Hull and David Price

165 – October 2014
The B Corporation: Economic Thought on ‘Doing Good’ and the Profit Motive
Jennifer Ball
166 – October 2014
Avoiding the Nonprofit Tax Minefield
Barbara Scofield and James Martin

167 – October 2014
Economic Development Incentives, Local Jurisdictions and Employment: Does Creating Jobs
Results in More Jobs?
Paul Byrne

168 – December 2014
Active Listening Case for Financial Accounting
Barbara Scofield

169 – December 2014
The Computer – Based CPA Exam: Ten Years in the Rear View Mirror
Kandalis Ockree and James Martin

170 – December 2014
What is Accuracy? Problematizing a Basic Accounting Construct
Louella Moore