Application of the VESi Course to a Washburn University Education Graduate Degree Program
Current and former WU students may enroll in the VESi online courses with the prior approval of their program advisors. The existing course substitution and registration process is used to allow courses to count toward program completion. A maximum of 9 credit hours of graduate credit may be applied to a Washburn University graduate program prior to admission. Program advisors will determine how the course will meet the requirements for a specific graduate program. Contact the WU Department of Education at 785-670-1427 for more information or visit the Department web site.

WU Graduate Course Registration & Tuition Payment
To receive WU graduate credit, you must be officially admitted to WU and enroll in the ED 674 graduate course(s) associated with the VESi course(s) no later than 5:00 pm on Friday, October 2, 2015. The ED 674 courses may not be dropped, nor will the WU tuition be refunded, once you have officially enrolled.

Tuition for the 2015 - 2016 academic year ED 674 graduate credit courses is $152 per credit hour plus a $135 per course VESi fee (see the total tuition and fees for each course shown above).

All course requirements must be completed no later than 5:00 pm on Wednesday, December 2, 2015.

Please complete and return the Special Enrollment Form and the tuition payment to the address shown below no later than 5:00 pm on Friday, October 2, 2014.
