

Applying for a Change of Status From H-4 to F-1

There are two ways to change status:

1) Travel Outside the U.S.

- a. Obtain proper documentation for the new status
- b. Travel outside the U.S.
- c. Apply for a visa at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate for the new classification
- d. Enter the U.S. with the new visa and any other applicable documents

2) Submit an Application to USCIS Within the U.S. (described in detail below)

- a. Obtain proper documentation for the new status
- b. Apply to USCIS (U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services) for a Change of Status

i. Two ways to apply to USCIS

1. Online electronically
2. Mail (paper application and documents)

c. If approved, you will be given a new I-94 for the new status and are eligible for all the benefits of the new status; however, this does NOT change the visa in your passport. It is okay to remain in the U.S. in the new status with a visa from your old category; but if you travel outside the U.S. you will have to apply for a new visa in the new category in order to return to the U.S. to continue in the new category.

Applying Online to USCIS from within the U.S.

Benefits of Filing Online

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS

For online (ELIS) submission, please upload the following documents with your application.

For mail applications, you should just submit photocopies of all the supplemental materials on the next page, with the exception of the Form I-20 and Evidence of Financial Support. USCIS still seems to prefer working with original proof of finances when the application is sent by mail. As always, it is recommended that you keep copies of all documents that you send to or receive from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service. The Office of International Programs also suggests that you mail the application in a manner that guarantees proof of delivery (e.g. certified mail or return receipt).

In addition to the application and fee, the following supplemental materials should be submitted:

1. Clear and obvious request for a specific effective date, if necessary or desired
2. Original Form I-20 (make sure section #11 is signed)
3. I-901 SEVIS fee payment receipt (go to <http://www.fmjfee.com> to pay the $200 SEVIS fee)
4. Original evidence of financial support. Past 4 months of bank statements are acceptable (a letter from the bank with current balance is insufficient).
5. H-4's original I-94 card (front and back) or copy of electronic I-94 record (<https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov>), H-4's visa used to enter the US, H-4's passport page (showing name, photo, date of birth and expiration date)
6. H-1B's approval notice (Form I-797A) with I-94 attached at bottom, H1-B's visa and H1-B's passport ID page
7. Proof that H1-B is still employed, e.g. current letter verifying that H1-B is still employed in the position as approved on Form I-797A or a current paystub
