Membership Matters

As a member of the Alumni Association, you're not only displaying pride in your alma mater, but also giving back to the University. Your membership dues are vital to the success of our organization and the University. As a member, you support:

Alumni scholarships

Each year, your dues contribute to our scholarship fund, which benefits dozens of legacy students at the University and Washburn Tech.

Alumni magazine

Your dues support The Ichabod alumni magazine, a tri-annual publication printed during the fall, winter and late spring.

Signature events

Your dues support our event programming, including Alumni Fellows, Alumni Awards and our Wake Up with Washburn series.

Other events

Your dues support our tailgate parties before home football games, monthly After Hours social and numerous local and national events.

An Ichabod for Life

Your experience as an Ichabod extends beyond the classroom. The Alumni Association is your lifelong connection to the University and your classmates. As a member of the Washburn Alumni Association, you'll belong to a network of more than 41,000 Ichabods in the United States and around the world.
