

Washburn University Dept. of Education
Professional Conduct Dispositions for Graduate Students

The following dispositional characteristics have been developed for use in the Education Department. They will be used as one evaluation tool in determining your grade.

1. The candidate is inner directed, reflective, and optimistic about the influence of education on all students.
2. The candidate views himself/herself as both a teacher and a learner and seeks to enhance his/her own professional development.
3. The candidate is accepting of diversity among people and makes decisions and adaptations that reflect a commitment to fairness and educational equity among students, including those with exceptionalities.
4. The candidate supports policies and practices that promote student safety, development and welfare.
5. The candidate is punctual, reliable, and well prepared and willingly assumes responsibilities for duties and assignments.
6. The candidate is consistently honest, respects and follows established policies and procedures, and maintains an integrity that reflects positively on the teaching profession.
7. The candidate demonstrates maturity and effective interpersonal skills and accepts constructive criticism in a positive manner.
8. The candidate communicates (both verbally and nonverbally) with students, parents, colleagues and authority figures in ways appropriate for the teaching and learning context.
9. The candidate values collaboration within the profession and is respectful of, and works collaboratively with, families, colleagues, community, and/or authority figures.
10. The candidate exhibits appropriate professional appearance and behavior, including good grooming and proper attire, when representing Washburn University.

Please sign below indicating that you have read the above statements. This form will be kept in your file in the Education Department office.

(signature)

(date)

(please print your name)