

George Daniel Harden

Educational Background

- Ph.D.            Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas, 1987
Administration and Foundations of Education
- M.S.            Winona State University, Winona, Minnesota, 1970
Educational Administration
- M.S.            Winona State University, Winona, Minnesota, 1968
History
- B.S.            University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota, 1963
History, Education, Speech and Theatre

Areas of Interest/Research

History and Philosophy of Education, rural and small schools, place based education, agrarian sociology, alternative approaches to educational delivery.

Professional Experiences

Teaching Experience

- 1999 – Present            Professor, Washburn University
- 1987 – 1999            Associate Professor, Washburn University

Teaching Areas

Undergraduate

Foundations of Education

Graduate

Philosophy of Education

Issues in Modern American Education

School Law

The Principalship

Supervision and Staff Development

Practicum in School Administration

Editorial Responsibilities

- 1995 – present            Editor, The Washburn Educator
- 2003                        Editor, Profiles in Particularity (projected)
- 1988 – present            Associate Editor, Educational Considerations

Professional Memberships

- United School Administrators of Kansas
- Society of Catholic Social Scientists
- National Association of School Boards
- Kansas Association of School Boards
- Kansas Association of Professors of Educational Administration