Frank added that we will welcome new senators at our May 12, 2014 meeting.

IV. Report from the Faculty Representative to the Board of Regents
Ball noted that agendas and minutes for the Board of Regents can be obtained on the Board of Regents website http://www.washburn.edu/about/leadership/board-regents/ or directly through her.

V. Report from the VPAA, Randy Pembrook
Pembrook announced the Washburn University’s Board of Regents has hired an architect to discuss an additional residence hall on campus, perhaps near Stauffer Hall. Construction should be completed in the summer of 2016.

Pembrook noted that Washburn University’s proposed tuition and salary hikes for the 2014-15 school year will be in-line with other institutions of higher education in Kansas. Washburn will propose a 3-5% tuition increase and a 1-3% salary raise, the raise contingent upon enrollment. Pembrook encouraged advisers to contact advisees if they have not yet registered for the upcoming summer and/or fall sessions.

Based on attendance at a recent conference, Pembrook shared recent trends in higher education. He noted that “corequisites” are replacing “prerequisites” in higher education. Corequisites involve a group of experiences (e.g. class, lab, tutoring) that shore up the processing of information in an upper level class and make prerequisites unnecessary. Corequisites tend to speed up the educational process. Data shows that they improve retention rates, as well. A second trend involves a special focus on the first four weeks of classes. During this period, a quiz on the syllabus, faculty face-name recognition, and a group project assisted students in the successful completion of a class. Other current trends include mandatory attendance policies, in-class tutoring, and mid-term conferences.

Handout: Minor in Information Literacy
Date: April 29, 2014

Submitted by: Sean C. Bird, Associate Dean of University Libraries (ext. 1550)

SUBJECT: Proposal for Online Minor in Information Literacy

Rationale:
The proposed Minor in Information Literacy at Washburn University is an online program open to all baccalaureate students in all majors and degree programs. The program contains both theoretical and experiential components, for a total of 15-credit hours. The primary objective of the program is to teach students Information Literacy and prepare them to take an active role in lifelong learning in the Information Age into which they will graduate and live their professional lives. The proposed IL Minor directly supports the Washburn University student learning outcome Information Literacy and Technology. The minor will be offered starting in the 2015-16 school year.

Students will choose two upper-division courses tailoring their individual Information Literacy Minor paths to complement their major classes and career goals. Elective course requirements shall remain flexible to the addition of new online curriculum and/or departmental offerings across campus (e.g. MM400 Media Literacy).

The proposed program requirements for the Information Literacy Minor at Washburn are:

• 15 total credit hours (6 required credits)
  Required courses
  CM101 Computer Concepts/Applications (3 hours)
  IL170 Library Research Strategies (1 hour)
  IL171 Internet Research Strategies (1 hour)
  IL172 Advanced Research Strategies (1 hour)

• Electives (Choose three of the following courses):
  Online classes:
  IL300 Information Literacy for Scholars (3 hours)
  IL301 Google & Beyond (3 hours)
  IL311 Information Literacy for the Health Professional (3 hours)
  IL321 Information Organization and Access (3 hours)
  IL351 Information, Culture, and People (3 hours)
  IL398 Readings (3 hours)
  IL399 Research (3 hours)
Financial Viability of an IL Minor:
The primary reason for offering the Information Literacy Minor is to further the success of Washburn University students. Like any program this program needs to be financially viable. The following information, therefore, seeks to demonstrate the viability of this proposal.

The current expectation is that no additional Librarians are required to teach the courses and or guide students through the IL Minor. Moreover, the expectation is also that it will appeal to two particular subsets of students, those studying only online and those that desire specific additional preparation for post-baccalaureate study.

Based on conversations with students and colleagues at institutions in other states (no such program currently exists in Kansas), the estimated enrollment in the IL Minor is 8 to 10 students per year.

FACULTY AGENDA ITEM 14-25

Date: April 28, 2014

Submitted by: Faculty Affairs Committee (Kelley Weber, Chair, 785/670-1503)

SUBJECT: Updates regarding SUBMITTED promotion & tenure materials.

Description:

Promotion and tenure candidates will have an opportunity to update information for materials already submitted in their petition.

Rationale:

Sometimes a grant is funded or an article accepted for publication after a candidate has submitted his/her promotion and tenure petition. This will allow the candidate to update the information in the petition package, but does not guarantee that it will make a difference to the final outcome. Each committee or individual reviewing the package should state specifically why a candidate did or did not get approved, so the person(s) at the next stage can determine whether the additional material should change the outcome; the package does NOT go backwards.

This policy will become the new Section 3.II.G – the current sections G-L will adjust accordingly (becoming H-M).

Financial Implications: None.

Proposed Effective Date: All future faculty hires beginning in 2013-2014 for the 2014-15 year.

Proposed wording:

Section 3.II.G A petitioner may provide updates regarding SUBMITTED materials mentioned in the original petition (e.g., grants; submitted articles) at any time in the review process. So reviewers further in the process can evaluate accurately whether any updates would or would not change that decision, committees and individuals reviewing the petition are encouraged to specify clearly what contributed to a negative decision.
