

Use of Student Work(s)

Request:

Washburn University is seeking your permission to use materials created by you during the term of a university course. You are under no obligation to grant Washburn University the right to use these materials. If you agree to permit Washburn University to use your work, please complete the form below.

Grant of Use of Student Work(s)

I, _____, of lawful age, hereby freely and willingly give and grant Washburn University of Topeka the non-exclusive right to use in whole or in part, for the purpose of advertising, endorsing or promoting such University in any print or electronic media, any of the copyrighted materials I submit to the instructor(s) of the Washburn University course identified below. The grant of the non-exclusive rights to use my copyrighted materials includes, but is not limited to, the use of written work(s), image(s), art object(s), and/or audio/video materials created during the term of such course and, further, may include the incorporation of such materials into an interactive media project and/or Web-based instructional and promotional materials. In the event such materials are incorporated into a larger work, Washburn University will hold a compilation copyright for the collection, arrangement, and presentation of such work(s). I waive any right I may have to inspect and approve the finished product or the copy that may be used in connection with the use of my copyrighted materials. It is understood my name may or may not be used in conjunction with the use of such materials.

I represent and warrant the copyrighted materials submitted are solely of my creation and that I alone hold the copyright to the such work(s). Further, I represent and warrant that no other individual or parties hold any copyright interests in any portion of such work(s).

It is understood that no compensation has been paid and that no fee or compensation shall be due to me for my gift to the University of the Non-exclusive right to use the copyrighted material(s) submitted.
