* Suspicious Person on Campus ****

On October 27th, 2008, at 11:45 PM a Washburn Police Officer encountered a suspicious person in Garvey Fine Arts while the officer was locking the building. The subject was identified as Gary L. Ross, a black male in his mid 30's. (See Photograph) The officer made contact with Mr. Ross and determined Mr. Ross was not a student. When contacted by

Ross, Gary L

B/M DOB/ 04-26-1975

Height/ 5' 4"

Weight/145 lbs

715 SW 12th Street

the officer Mr. Ross left the campus walking to the north. Mr. Ross is a registered offender with the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI).

He has been told by officers not to return to the Washburn University campus. At the time of the most recent contact the officer described Mr. Ross as having a thin build with a full beard and dirty clothing. Prior to this contact, WUPD officers had received a report that Mr. Ross may have been in the Petro Allied Health Building, WUPD officers located Mr. Ross a short while later inside Garvey.

If you see Mr. Ross on the Washburn campus at anytime please contact the Washburn Police Department at 670-1153.
