* Magazine Sales on Campus ****

Over the last few days, several Washburn students have had contact with subjects soliciting for magazine sales on campus. These contacts have been in both public areas as well as inside of buildings. If anyone has contact with or observes a person wishing to sell items, please immediately contact the Washburn University Police Department. Please try to get a detailed description of the individual(s) including:

- Last known location
- Clothing description
- Vehicle description (if known)

As a reminder, all students, faculty & staff are encouraged to not purchase any items from any individuals unless you are sure the individual is authorized to sell the product.
