

The HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE

Arthur Capper, Publisher
Topeka, Kansas

NELSON ANTRIM CRAWFORD, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
KATHLEEN ROGAN ASHTON, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

IDA MIGLIARIO, EDITOR
L. M. HARMON, ART EDITOR

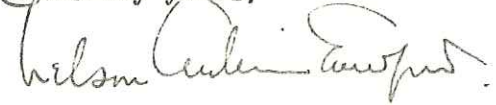

October 18, 1935

Dear Mrs. Draper:

Like much of your work, "The Floods of Spring" is too elliptical for the average reader. It is an interesting story, but not nearly obvious enough for most persons.

Mr. Chambrun is a very energetic agent, and he now has associated with him Mr. Howland, who used to be editor for Bobbs-Merrill. They should be able to place your novel as well as any agent, I think. Good luck with it.

Sincerely yours,

Nelson Antrim Crawford,
Editor-in-Chief.

Inc.

Mrs. Edythe Squier Draper,
Oswego, Kansas.