HELLO FUTURE CJ GRADS!!

Did you know that you need an internship to graduate? Did you know you should start thinking about it a year in advance? Do you know where to start? Are you overwhelmed?

Fear not. I am planning to hold three informal sessions over how to get going on this process. One hour or less per session, just enough to take you through the process, give some pointers, do a little Q & A, and send you on your way.

We will meet Sept 6th 4:30 – 5:30pm, and Sept 20th 12 – 1pm.

Though not required, an RSVP to me, Erin Grant (erin.grant@washburn.edu), would be rad! That way I can plan on some snacks, copies, etc. If you cannot make it, please, email me and we can sit down one on one and chat about options.

Welcome to the fall semester. Hope to see you soon!

Erin Grant
