

ABIGAIL HOLLOWAY

Abigail is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and a Bachelor of Arts degree in English: Creative Writing. In June of 2020, Abigail is planning to travel to the Czech Republic for three months to help teach and participate in youth development at a few of the English camps hosted there. Upon her return, Abigail looks forward to continuing her internship as a book editor for Advisors Excel, and she is planning to take the TEFL certificate course Washburn offers in the Fall. She then hopes to engage in mission work before pursuing further education in the arts, with the hopes of becoming a college professor. Abigail worked as the Facility Assistant for the Washburn Student Recreation and Wellness Center, and she is a member of Washburn's Ratio Christi apologetics group. As a Topeka native, Abigail has served in many capacities throughout the community, volunteering for Harvesters, the Boys and Girls Club, Doxazo, WyldLife, Upwards, AWANA, and various VBS programs around the city. She has helped coach volleyball and basketball teams for Cornerstone Family Schools, and she has been a leader for both college and middle school small groups at her church. Abigail also served as a Topeka Bible Church Student Ministry Summer Intern for three fun-filled summers. Abigail received the White Music Scholarship, the Culver Memorial Scholarship, the Desmond WEA Scholarship, the Huggins WEA Scholarship, the Washburn University Marching Band Scholarship, the Guthrie WEA Scholarship, the Washburn University Alumni Association Scholarship, the Delta Theta Chi Scholarship, the Ward & Eloise Martin Scholarship, the Topeka Pen Women CAS Scholarship, the Quinn Music Scholarship, the Washburn University WTE-IE Scholarship, the Young English Scholarship, the Guild Modern Foreign Language Scholarship, and the Geneva Seybold Endowment.
