

Master of Education Degree Program
Curriculum and Instruction with Emphasis in Educational Studies

Core Courses: The following 7 semester hours are required:

- ___ ED 672 Issues in Education (3)
- ___ ED 665 Introduction to Educational Research (3)
- ___ ED 698 Action Research (1)*

* Pre-req: successful completion of 24 credit hours and the ED 665 Course.

Literacy Courses: The following 6 semester hours are required:

- ___ RD 610 Literacy/ESOL Instructional Approaches (3)
- ___ RD 622 Literacy/ESOL Instructional Strategies (3)

Technology: The following 9 semester hours are required:

- ___ ED 680 Integrating Technology in Curriculum (3)
- ___ ED 684 Multimedia in the Classroom (3)
- ___ ED 686 Integrating the Internet into Instruction (3)

Special Education: The following 6 semester hours are required:

- ___ SE 610 Learning and Behavior Problems (3)
- ___ SE 680 Resources for Families of Children with Disabilities (3)

English for Speakers of Other Languages Courses: The following 6 semester hours are required:

- ___ ED 651 ESOL Methods and Cross Cultural Communication (3)
- ___ ED 671 ESOL Teaching and Learning (3)

This program is designed for those interested in studying education from more integrated and broader perspectives. Candidates will complete coursework in the following areas: Literacy, Special Education, Educational Foundations and Research, Technology, and English for Speakers of Other Languages.

If interested in this program and you would like more information, please contact the Department of Education Chair, Dr. Cherry Steffen at: cherry.steffen@washburn.edu.