

Office of International Programs

List of English Speaking Countries

In general, students from following countries are exempt from providing English Proficiency test scores when applying to Washburn University. However, graduate students or undergraduate students who intend to study Nursing or pursue a BSN degree may not be exempt. Please check with your specific program of study to be sure this applies to your situation.

America Samoa	Malta
Anguilla	Mauritius
Antigua and Barbados	Montserrat
Australia	Namibia
Bahamas	New Zealand
Barbados	Nigeria
Belize	Papua New Guinea
Bermuda	Scotland
Botswana	Seychelles
British Virgin Islands	Sierra Leone
Cameroon	Singapore
Canada (except Quebec)	Solomon Islands
Cayman Islands	South Africa
Dominica	St. Kitts and Nevis
England	St. Lucia
Fiji	St. Vincent and the Grenadines
Gambia	Swaziland
Ghana	Tanzania
Gibraltar	Tonga
Grenada	Trinidad and Tobago
Guam	Turks and Caicos Islands
Guyana	U.S. Virgin Islands
Ireland, Northern	Uganda
Ireland, Republic of	United Kingdom
Jamaica	Vanuatu
Kenya	Wales
Lesotho	Zambia
Liberia	Zimbabwe
Malawi

Applicants from all other countries will need to provide TOEFL, IELTS, PTE, or Duolingo scores. See WU English Proficiency Requirements for more information.

Updated 3/15/2021