APPLICATION

PROCESS FOR NEW INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

ALL applicants must submit the following:

1. International Online Application for Admission
2. USD $70 non-refundable application/processing fee
3. iBTTOEFL, IELTS or DuoLingo English Test (DET) score report if applying for full admission
4. Original financial supporting documents (i.e., current bank statement)
5. Signed and completed Financial Disclaimer form
6. Original high school transcripts. If a student has completed university-level course credit, a course-by-course evaluation by ECE or WES is required

Transfer students (from other universities located in the U.S.) must also submit:

7. A copy of your current I-20 form (pages 1 and 2) or DS-2019 form
8. A copy of your current F-1 or J-1 visa and passport ID page
9. Official transcripts sent by your current U.S. university to Washburn

Graduate students must first be admitted to the university through the Office of International Programs. For more details regarding the graduate program application process, please contact the graduate department directly. In addition to Nos. 1-6 above, master's students must submit the following:

10. LSAT (for law) score
11. Two or three letters of recommendation
12. English proficiency test scores (iBTTOEFL/IELTS/DuoLingo), as required
13. Course-by-course evaluation of foreign transcripts by ECE or WES

Intensive English*

Students can also enroll in the IEP. This program is designed to assist international students in improving their English skills. Learn more about the Intensive English Program at washburn.edu/academics/international-programs.

All items that apply to an applicant must be received before an admission decision can be made.

 Intensive English applicants are not required to submit transcripts.*

“Washburn is all about self-growth and professional development. With excellent faculty, staff and immense opportunity to be involved in student organizations and activities, I feel my investment of time and effort has come to a fruitful outcome. At Washburn, I can assure everyone that you’ll never get lost among the crowd, and you’ll always find someone helping you to achieve your personal and professional goals.”

*Tuition rates are based on traditional coursework, and typically increase 3-4% each academic year. Rates are based on 12 credit hours (generally 4 courses) for undergraduate students and 9 credit hours (generally 3 courses) for graduate students.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are available for highly qualified international students. Contact the Office of International Programs, along with your specific department and organizations, about scholarships that may apply to you. Office of International Programs scholarships are usually one-time awards per academic year after completing one year at WU. Departmental scholarships vary, but are usually from $500 to $2,000 per academic year.

For graduate scholarship opportunities, please contact the graduate program directly.

“Every person at Washburn is very kind and friendly to you. It makes you feel comfortable and pushes you up toward big academic success. But, the best thing here is you may find a lifelong best friend, as I did. You will never regret choosing this college.”

ACADEMICS

BIG OPPORTUNITIES SMALL ENOUGH TO KNOW ENOUGH YOUR NAME

Washburn offers a quality education in more than 200 areas of study, with a 12:1 student-to-faculty ratio that provides the individual attention you need to reach your goals.

School of Business

Washburn's School of Business holds accreditation from Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)-International, an elite accreditation that only the top 5 percent of business schools in the world achieve. This, plus access to the latest resources and technology, makes Washburn business graduates some of the most prepared and knowledgeable in their field.

College of Arts & Sciences

With specialized programs from Pre-Engineering to Pre-Law and beyond, this department prepares students with the critical thinking skills and zeal for learning to help them succeed both in and out of the classroom.

School of Applied Studies

This school consists of the following on-campus departments: Allied Health, Criminal Justice & Legal Studies, Human Services and Social Work. It is accredited by 10 external agencies and places more than 500 students into internship experiences throughout the state each academic year.

School of Law

Washburn University School of Law offers a curriculum that combines classroom instruction with real-world skills and experience. Washburn ranks 15th in the nation for legal analysis, research and writing, per the 2018 edition of U.S. News & World Report, making it a great environment for students seeking a well-rounded and comprehensive legal education.

School of Nursing

Washburn's School of Nursing offers undergraduate degrees in nursing, and all of the programs are approved by both state and national credentialing organizations. The excellence of these programs shows in the skill and care of our exceptional nursing students.

STUDENT LIFE:

ORGANIZATIONS, RECREATION, HOUSING AND DINING

Residential Living

Washburn has five residential facilities, from residence halls to apartment complexes, where you'll have easy access to your classrooms, events and activities – allowing you to easily make new friends and be part of the community.

Recreation and Wellness

Your tuition covers access to our Student Recreation and Wellness Center, where you can take exercise classes, join sports teams or use fitness equipment to work out and stay fit.

Student Activities

Washburn has more than 130 student clubs and organizations for you to explore, get connected and discover your potential.

Dining

Not only does Washburn have four unique dining locations, but each of them is committed to providing wholesome food options, with fair trade, sustainable and reduced-antibiotic foods that support a healthier student body and a healthier world.

“Washburn was a great experience for me. The campus is really beautiful, and there’s lots of fun activities to do, and you get to meet new people. The International Student Office is incredible. They are always open to help and take care of you. I am always thankful for them.”
