Study Abroad Financial Planning Form Instructions

Budgeting is a critical component of preparing for your time abroad. A well-structured financial plan will help ensure that you can live comfortably, meet your academic and personal needs, and fully engage in the cultural and educational opportunities available to you.

Instructions:

- 1. Estimate Your Income and Expenses:
 - Use the information available on the program, host institution’s website, and other resoruces to identify anticipated costs such as tuition, housing, meals, transportation, and personal expenses.
 - Include all sources of income, such as financial aid, scholarships, family contributions, and personal savings.
- 2. Meet with a WU Financial Aid Advisor:
 - Schedule a meeting with a Financial Aid Advisor to review your financial aid package and discuss available resources.
 - Be sure to ask about any scholarships, grants, or loans that may apply to your study abroad program.
- 3. Scholarship Restrictions:
 - some scholarships may be governed by Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) that restrict funds to Washburn University tuition only. These are typically performance-based scholarships.
 - Consult with your Academic Department Chair or the Athletic Department to clarify any restrictions related to your scholarships.
