

International Education Committee
November 17, 2005
International House

In attendance: Azyz Sharafy, Alex Glashausser, Russ Smith for Teresita Leyell, Mary Sheldon, Brian Ogawa, Shirley Dinkel, and Baili Zhang

Guest: Tina Williams

Absent: Vic Landrum, Marie-Luce Parker

1. Minutes were approved

2. Chair's and members' report

Baili reported that International Education Week was in full swing and that Phi Beta Delta will induct three new members on Dec. 2.

Shirley Dinkel reported that two Finnish students and two Washburn students have finished their exchange programs and that two WU students will go to N. Ireland next spring.

Sharafy reported that the art department program in Paris is moving along

Brian reported that CJ Department is organizing a group to go to Scotland

Russ reported their international projects in Taiwan and China involving visiting students and faculty from those areas.

3. Tina briefly presented the following SA programs for the Committee members' information. No "flags" were identified. The programs presented are: Janzen's group to Paris, Ogawa's group to Tokyo, Godman and Prash's group to London, and Baynes's group to Scotland

3. Applications for funding to travel abroad were presented and discussed. All lacked one thing or another. It was decided that their applications be approved conditionally and Baili would contact them individually regarding making amendments. The Committee decided that applications guidelines should be made clearer and be enforced more strictly for future applications.

Lee McGuinness: $1,200 to Sydney

Mark Peterson: $1,200 to Beijing

Sharafy: $817 to Copenhagen

Brian Ogawa: $1,135 to Tokyo

Respectfully submitted,

Baili Zhang
