

Assistant Professor – Clinical or Counseling Psychology
(Recruitment No. 18-000111)

Washburn University invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in Psychology to begin August 2019. This is a full-time, 9-month, tenure track position. A completed Ph.D. is required by the time of tenure track appointment. The selected candidate will have a demonstrated commitment to students from diverse backgrounds and a dedication to the development of inclusive pedagogies that support equity and student success.

Required Qualifications

- Ph.D. in Clinical or Counseling Psychology from an APA accredited program; ABD applicants will also be considered.
- Evidence of excellence in teaching or potential for teaching excellence.

Preferred Qualifications

- Licensed or license eligible in Kansas as a psychologist.
- Experience mentoring student research.

Responsibilities

- Teach 12 credit hours per semester.
- Teach a graduate interviewing course and at least one additional graduate course consistent with department needs and/or candidate interests.
- Teach undergraduate courses which may include Introductory Psychological Statistics, Abnormal Psychology, Personality, and other courses consistent with the candidate's training and interests and departmental needs.
- Supervise undergraduate and master's student research.
- Have an active research program that can involve students.
- Engage in service activities in the department and to the university, profession and/or community.

Application Procedures

Application review will begin January 14, 2019 and continue until the position is filled. Send a letter of interest, vitae, copies of transcripts, a statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching effectiveness (such as student or peer evaluations), evidence of advising/mentoring excellence, and the names and contact information of three professional references to Ms. Theresa Young at theresa.young@washburn.edu. Please use "Clinical Search" in the subject line. Only electronic application materials will be accepted. Questions may be sent to the Search Committee Chair at: linzi.gibson@washburn.edu. The successful candidate will be required to provide official transcripts and submit to a background check prior to hire.

Washburn is an EOE and dedicated to providing a student-centered and teaching focused academic environment and a curriculum that engages the diversity of human experience across the globe. We seek candidates who are committed to Washburn's efforts to create a climate that fosters the growth and development of a diverse student body, and we encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically underrepresented in higher education. Application materials should clearly articulate how the candidate will contribute to the University's commitment to diversity and inclusion through their teaching, research, and/or service.

Washburn University provides equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, national origin, ancestry, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, veteran status, or marital or parental status.