Nursing Lecturer in the PMHNP Post-Graduate Program

- Posting #: F2480619
- Department: Nursing

Washburn University School of Nursing has an opportunity for a full-time Lecturer faculty position starting August 2019. The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate a commitment to quality graduate education while supporting clinical practice and a program of scholarship.

Required Qualifications:

- DNP or PhD with APRN status
- Licensed in Kansas as an RN or APRN by August 2019
- Minimum five years of nursing practice

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience in nursing education - teaching at the graduate level
- Experience with student advisement
- Current pattern of service to professional organizations

Responsibilities:

- Teach didactic and practicum courses related to their NP specialty area.
- Maintain a quality online learning environment for didactic/practicum courses
- Participate in the advising process with students
- Provide input on curricular changes
- Participate in on-campus School of Nursing and University events
- Engage in service to the School of Nursing, the University, and to the profession of nursing
- Engage in professional development activities
- Maintain a faculty practice that meets ongoing national certification requirements
- Co-teach a core course within the graduate program
- Participate as a member of a DNP inquiry project committee

Application Procedures:

- Submit letter of application, resume, names/phone numbers of three professional references to Andrea Clifton, School of Nursing, Washburn University, 1700 SW College, Topeka, KS 66621, 785-670-1526. Only complete applications and application materials will be accepted.
• For questions, Jane Carpenter may be contacted at 785-670-1469 or at jane.carpenter@washburn.edu.
• Application review will begin July 1, 2019 and continue until the position is filled.
• Salary commensurate with academic credentials and experience.
• For further information about the School of Nursing, please visit http://www.washburn.edu/main/nursing/index.html.
• The successful candidate will be required to submit to a background check prior to hire.

Washburn is dedicated to providing a student-centered and teaching focused academic environment and a curriculum that engages the diversity of human experience across the globe. We seek candidates who are committed to Washburn’s efforts to create a climate that fosters the growth and development of a diverse student body, and we encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically underrepresented in higher education. Application materials should clearly articulate how the candidate will contribute to the University’s commitment to diversity and inclusion through their teaching, research, and/or service.

Washburn University is an EOE. Washburn University provides equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, national origin, ancestry, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, veteran status, or marital or parental status.