

Kenneth then went to Wichita, where on July 27 he was married, and Mrs. Porter shortly departed for California, which was to be her home for the remaining five years or so of her life. The connection of the Wiggins and Porter families with 434 N. Broadway, which had begun approximately 45 years earlier, had finally come to an end.

Kenneth Wiggins Porter
24 May 1978