VIII. Roll Call

IX. Adjournment

Bill Discussion

19-20 #086: Speaking Surritt begins discussion
 No more language about changing title
 Took out "at your 4th absence it is mandatory to meet"
 Right to appeal an absence whenever you get any
 Due Process hearing removal of office work
 If removed, you cannot come back for 365 days, unless otherwise stated by the Senate

Soliday: Can 365 days be lowered or is it set at 365
Surritt: No, 365 days is fine but able to be changed
Soliday: Should be administration because 365 days is a long time and they could have had a bad semester. Senate can make the change if they want.

Thew: Does the amendments have the Code of Conduct

Surritt: Yes

Thew: Concern for 365 days. Should not have a mandatory suspension. Should be case by case. The extra process is unneeded.

Surritt: People can change it if they want

Bergin: Sounds good to remove 365 days. If we remove someone from Senate, then it is a system that fixes itself. Made amendment: Strike Section 14 from "WSGA" Down to "Any".

Durkin: Was going to make this amendment. In favor for this.

Tovar: Should keep it. We forget that we have family problems and that we are students too.

Recommends one semester.

Thew: Agrees with this amendment. Shows incoming students that consequences exist. If we have concerns, then it will be case by case.

Durkin: Should be case by case because we are students.

Tovar: Should write down case by case

Caffrey: Should pass this as is with the amendments. People kicked out need to get back in from being elected. Should not have any issues.

Surritt: Last thing. Case by case is good. Moved to previous question

Amendment Passes

Smith: Moved to previous question

Passes

SB 19-20 #087: Surritt begins discussion and reiterates what was previously spoken on

Thew: Wants to see the Removal from office wording

Surritt: Reads what is written

Bergin: Question on Code of Conduct removal

Durkin: Moved to previous question

Passes

VP Matt loves clappin'

SB 19-20 #007: Haberkorn: Begins discussion and recap of resolution. Have the Senate sign the resolution and send it to him.
